Comments on teaching (strengths, areas for improvement)

Student 2449 - Amazing TA. Great recitations and very open to questions. Very patient and detailed Student 2496 - Great TA! He was very knowledgeable and always willing to help.

Student 2503 - I enjoyed recitations. I think Shakked's depth of knowledge is matched by his kindness. I felt that I could always approach him if I had a question and that I would get the answer that I needed.

Student 6343 - Shakked was an exemplary TA. His recitations were extremely engaging, well-prepared, and thought-provoking. Minute for minute, they were some of the most illuminating, enjoyable, and inspiring hours spent in my time at MIT. Thank you!

Student 7661 - Shakked is an excellent, very knowledgeable, and super approachable TA. The material we covered in recitation complemented the lecture material very well. Shakked covered frontier research, explained it intuitively yet rigorously, and moderated lively discussions. I also really liked that he participated in the lectures, and his comments linking the current topics with recitation material he covered, or related recent papers from other fields, were especially helpful. Thanks Shakked! (If you had asked: "How likely are you to recommend Shakked Noy to a friend or colleague?" I would have answered: 10/10.)

Student 34508 - Shakked is the best TA I've ever had. He was extremely organised, and his recitations were incredibly useful and interesting. He's very knowledgeable and a walking encyclopedia of references. He was very engaged in lectures, and helpful outside of them in OHs too. He was very responsive to emails and requests, and everything happened timely and smoothly thanks to him.

Student 51070 - Shakked is a phenomenal instructor who teaches very clearly and cares about students getting as much as possible out of the class. He was incredibly organized, gave feedback and announcements quickly, and answered questions comprehensively. He understands the material deeply, organizes key ideas and communicates them effectively, and encourages students to find research ideas at the forefront of the field.
